A WOMAN'S EVIDENCE

Causes Another Sensation in the Ballot-Box Investigation.

MRS. WOOD ON THE WITNESS STAND

Upon Foraker's Order. THE EX-GOVERNOR'S YOUNGER BROTHER Celebrated Contract.

The Ohio ballot-box investigation took a new turn when the wife of Forger Wood testified yesterday. She swore that money was several times paid her by Lew Hadden, of Cincinnati, upon an order which was afterward burned. Murat Halstead will be on the stand to-day.

WASHINGTON, February 5 .- The House committee investigating the Ohio ballot-box Jorgery this morning continued the examination of Governor Campbell. In answer to Governor Foraker, witness said he had to Governor Foraker, witness said he had and witness had replied that he did not not predicated his assertion made in a Mr. Halstead will be examined to-morrow. speech that Foraker was an infamous scoundrel upon the Luce letter, but it was an answer to Foraker's charge that he was a party to a million-dollar steal. He (wit- Another Presbytery Decides to Take ness) had said that any man who charged another with stealing a million dollars when he didn't know what he was talking about was an infamous scoundrel. Witness said he never saw one of the Wood batlot bexes except one in Colonel T. C. Campbell's office, and one brought to with a ballot box in his life. He never spoke to the President about the ballot-box bill. To Mr. Struble, a member of the committee, witness said that he introduced the ballot-box bill altogether upon T. C. Campbell's request. He thought that Mr. Campbell should have a show for his box. He (witness) was the only Democratic representative in Southern Ohio, and had been and was still willing to father the bill. Mr. Campbell had been his attorney, was his friend, and he was ready at all times to

AS TO MURAT HALSTEAD.

He knew Mr. Halstead by sight and had known his tather. His paper had at times assailed witness heartily, unctuously and with a great deal of zest and apparent pleasure to itself, whenever he (witness) ran for Congress. In 1886 a Middletown correspondent of the Commercial Garatte charged witness with boodling—a crime—and he called upon Mr. Halstead, who said he had his integrity. To Governor Foraker witness said that if he spoke to Colonel Harper about a paper which would vindicate him he probably referred to the Luce letter, but hedid not remember any such conversation.

This concluded Governor Campell's ex-amination and Lewis G. Bernard was placed on the stand. He said that in October last he was a member of the Democratic Campaign Committee. In the early part of October, in the committee room, he was handed a copy of the Luce letter by Frank J. Kelley, Secretary of the committee. Witness kept the letter for a day or two, and then brought it to Washington, where he came on business. He showed it to John R. McLean. In his return he met Mr. Meeker, showed him the letter, and at his request allowed him to make a copy. Witas then returned his copy to Mr. Kelley.

FORAKER ASKS A QUESTION. Governor Foraker wished to know why witness had not shown the letter to Governor Campbell instead of Mr. McLean. Witness replied that Mr. McLean was his friend, his name had been connected with the ballot box and he was interested in the matter. Mr. Bernard said that as a member of the Democratic committee of Hamil.

Mr. Milburn is far in advance of any we have nearly before. For refined beauty of language, genuine wit, noble thoughts and oftentimes a deep pathos, we have not known his equal. With personal conviction, we pronounce him to be most truly "The Blind Man Eloquent."

Miss Louise A. Zahu), aged 27 years. KIRCHNER—On Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock, John P. Kirchner, aged 67 years 6 months and 9 days.

Funeral will take place from the residence of his son-in-law, John J. Bauman, No. 77 Walther avenue, Thirty-first ward, on Friday are rematter. Mr. Bernard said that as a mem-ber of the Democratic committee of Hamilber of the Democratic committee of Hamilton county he put various people to work to try and find Wood, but without avail. The search was not begun until after the retraction was published.

Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, wife of R. G. Woob, was next called. She said her first knowledge of her husband's connection with the ballot-box matter was when he came home one day and told her that James Foraker and Mr. Hadden wanted him to try for appointment as Smoke Inspector, and that he could get it if he furnished certain papers to Governor Foraker. She had advised her husband to have nothing to do with the business.

He had sent and received several tele-grams to and from Governor Foraker. Dur-ing her husband's absence Mr. Hadden called. That was on October 31. She had received a letter from her husband telling her to call upon Hadden for money, and she did so. He was not at home, so she (Mrs. Wood) left word for him to call at her house and he did so.

A VALUABLE NOTE. She presented the letter with an inclosed note to Hadden, who read it, and said it called for $50, which he paid her at once

He then advised her to put all such letters in the fire, and burned his note. She had saved the letter from her husband, however, and produced it. Grosvenor read it, as follows:

produced it. Grosvenor read it, as follows:

WASHINGTON, October 15.

I want you to see Hadden at 8. S. Davis' office and let me know by telegraph if he will do what I wrote him, and send by express. I hope you understood my telegram to-day in answer to yours. I don't want to see Campbell here, and don't know that I want to see him at all. He is in with Jim Campbell. I will return to Cincinnati if advised to do so by Hadden after he has seen. His Royal Highness up at Columbus. But if he thinks best to stay here until after election I will do so. I know that Tom Campbell wants an affidavit that will help Jim Campbell in his fight against Foraker.

Mr. Grosvernor asked for full details of Mr. Grosvernor asked for full details of the payment of money to her husband by Hudden. Witness replied that she, about October 16 or 17, received $150 from Hadden at his office, $100 of which was for her hus-band and $50 for herself. Then there was the payment of $50 made at her husband's ouse, and again she received $40 from him the night of Wood's arrest.

ONLY A POLITICAL AFFAIR. Hadden told her they would see that Wood was taken care of; that his arrest was who was taken care of; that his arrest was only a political affair, and that he would be given permanent employment. He hardly thought he could get the smoke inspectorship, but still he would be taken care of, whether Foraker was elected or not. She had written to Governor Foraker that Wood's letters and telegrams, which she held, had been seen by no one, and that he could have them for the asking.

Here Governor Forsker stated that he had never received the letter, and the witness responded that Mr. Hadden had told her that he had never received it. The letters and telegrams were placed in Lawyer Chambers' hands and he took them to Mr. T. C. Campbell. The last named gentleman called twice at her house and wanted to know where her husband was, but she did not tell him. Hadden desired her to say nothing about the conversations he had had

Governor Foraker said he knew nothing except in the most general way about the payments made to Mrs. Wood by Hadden, and that Hadden could tell his story when

DECEIVED BY THE DOCUMENT. John G. Brown, State Treasurer of Ohio the next witness, said that at Urichsville Junction. September 13, Governor Foraker had shown him the forged paper, after tell-ing of the ballot box bill. Witness said he could not use the paper in the campaign, and the Governor replied that that was the trouble. He had gotten more than he wanted. Witness took it for a genuine

Alexander Caine, of the Ohio State Auditor's office, testified to a conversation on the train with Governor Foraker September Come to-day. Jos. Houne & Co.'s E7. Other persons were present, and they were talking polities; and Governor For-aker said that if Sherman and McKinley did not let up on him, he had something in his desk that would ruin them. He did not know what the Governor referred to.

F. C. Hall, of the Hall Lock and Safe Company, testified that he knew of no paper relating to the ballot box aigned by a member of Congress, except what he had seen in the newspaper. Wood had shown witness a copy of "Contract 1,000," without signatures. Wood said a number of prominent labburger in Westignant and the second to take Money Paid Her Husband and Herself lobbyists in Washington were going to take hold of his bill. That was before the publication of the forged paper.

AGAIN ON THE STAND.

Mrs. Wood was recalled, and in answer to Mr. Turner said she had advised her hus-band to have nothing to do with the procur-ing of the papers. She believed that Wood should secure recommendations without such devices, and she regarded it a dishon-orable way to get the place — dis-honorable not only on the part of her husband, but on the part of Governor Foraker, who should not have asked for such papers, and who should have exposed Wood as soon as he learned of the forgery. Gov-ernor Foraker got from the witness that her admiration for him did not wane until he had dropped Wood.

John E. Benton, of New York, testified that he had made some registers and boxes for the ballot-box company. He produced a letter from Governor Foraker, dated in June last, wanting to know if he knew anything to connect James E. Campbell or John McLean with the ballot-box company,

ADVOCATES OF REVISION.

Place in the Progressive Column.

ISPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. SYRACUSE, N. Y., February 5 .- A special eeting of the Syracuse Presbytery was held on Monday to take action upon the report of the committee appointed on the revision of the Confession of Faith. It was him in Washington, and he never traveled | decided best not to take definite action until the spring meeting. The Committee on Re-vision, however, had finished its work and its report was unanimous. The committee had decided that revision was desirable. The report says:

With profound reverence for the Westminster Confession as a symbol of a belief of a mighty time in the past, glorying in it, apologizing not one whit for it, we would simply let it be and with not less reverent hands than those which reared that great structure, we of to-day would build a simpler confession, a more catholic creed, a more missionary symbol of our Christian belief and duty.

We expect a tidal wave of close buyers and people who know a good thing when they see it to fill our big store from now on and tackle the princely bargains we shall offer with a vigor which will plainly We offer you your choice of say, "We have come for some of the good things you offer, and we're going to have 'em." And that's what you'll do, sure.

TURN THIS OVER IN YOUR MIND!

YOU WANT Good reliable Clothing, Hats, Furnishing Goods and Footwear at what you know are bargain prices; where will you be most likely to find them? If you want fresh water the place to seek it is where it is running constantly, not where it dribbles slug-gishly away. If you want good goods, then, you should seek them where the current of business runs fast, so that goods don't have time to grow Cambric and Swiss Aprons; stale. If you want to buy at lowest figures the best place to buy is over 15 neat and pretty de- where the most business is done (this is at Gusky's), for as a bank can always loan a large sum of money at a lower rate of interest that a small sum, so a merchant, who makes large sales, can sell at a smaller percentage of profit than the firm whose sales are few and small,
